Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to establish a Disability Commissioner for Scotland

The consultation runs from 12 May 2022 to 3 August 2022

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Those that are disabled have different needs from those who aren't and this affects literally every day of our lives , due to this , we should not be lumped in with those without disabilities because our needs in society and life are not the same . We need someone with lived experience of disability who can become commissioner and ensure our needs are met by what we need and not what some able bodied person thinks we need

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Bill? (Please note that this question is compulsory.)

Q2. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether there is a need for a specific, dedicated commissioner focussing solely on people with a disability?

Fully supportive

Please give the reasons for your response

As said prior

Q3. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively? Please explain the reasons for your response.

Scope of the Disability Commissioner Role

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of the Disability Commissioner role covering all disabilities; physical, mental, hidden and fluctuating conditions?

Fully supportive

Please give reasons for your response, including how the commissioner could co-ordinate with the work of existing bodies/organisations who support people with these conditions.

Why should those only with physical disabilities be coveted? Most with physical disabilities actually have mental health issues too which go hand in hand. The amount of hidden disabilities due to fluctuations etc is significant in Scotland and we should all be given the right to someone who fights for our corner for life which can be extremely hard on a day to day basis

Q5. Which of the following best expresses your view of the Disability Commissioner having a role in reviewing laws and policies that might impact on disabled people?

Partially supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I would only want this if the commissioner was someone who has extensive knowledge and experience of is disabled themselves as then we would get the support legally that we need and not what an able bodied person with no knowledge or experience of disabilities thinks we need

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the Disability Commissioner promoting best practice and learning from service providers, key stakeholders and third sector?

Partially supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including how you envisage this work being undertaken?

I worked for a disability organisation within welfare to work for 10 years before having to retire due to ill health. My employer did not always provide the best possible services for their clients even though they were supposed 'specialists in disabilities. My fear is if one org is like that, many more could be too

Q7. Which of the following best expresses your view of encouraging involvement of disabled people and DPOs (Disabled People's Organisations) in the work of the Disability Commissioner?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response. Please discuss how you think this would work in practise – would this be through focus groups, internships, paid roles etc

Because we know what we need etc not someone who sits behind a desk and has written a few reports on disabilities within Scotland.

Including organisations is a must but I think there should be more individuals with disabilities involved than the organisations

Q8. Who should the Disability Commissioner be allowed to investigate?

Both Scottish Public Bodies and service providers

Please explain the reasons for your response

Because unfortunately disabled people are not given the same level of service than others, I have seen this in a professional role many times and now personally too, even if it's not intentional. Having someone dedicated to investigation public bodies and services providers for only disabled people would give us a more fairer chance of getting the same level of service as those who are not disabled

Financial Implications

Q9. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

Unsure

Equalities

Q10. Any new law can have an impact on different individuals in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law? If you do not have a view skip to next question.

Please explain the reasons for your answer and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

No Response

Sustainability

Q11. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your answer, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?
